THE EVENING HERALD.

ALL THE NEWS FOR ONE CENT.

Has a larger circulation in Shenandoah than any other paper published. Circulation books open to all.

AFFAIRS CAUGHT HASTILY.

What News Gatherers Take a Moment to Tell About.

Apple Jack season. Chestnuts are cheap. Grapes are better since the frost. The malaga grapes are fine this year. Sunday hunting is illegal any time. Two weeks yet till the rabbit season opens.

Red is the prevailing color for men's neckwear.

Mosquitoes and flies still linger in the lap of autumn.

The man who tells you how he became bald knows "wear off" he speaks. Fall trade is now due. If you want to reach the people advertise in the HERALD.

It is to be hoped that we may yet have considerable pleasant weather before winter puts in appearance.

Now is the time to go for autumn leaves. The forest trees look lovely bedecked in their variegated colors.

Coming Events.

Nov. 3 and 4—Grand entertainment, "Uncle Tom and Eve," in the P. M. church.

Nov. 5—Second anniversary entertainment of Major Jennings' Council, No. 367, U. O. U. A. M., in Ferguson's theatre.

Nov. 18—Grand supper in Robbins' opera house for the benefit of the Trinity Reformed church.

November 23—Grand supper in Robbins' opera house; benefit of Lady Harrison Lodge, No. 16, A. P. L. A.

Children Enjoy
The pleasant flavor, gentle action and soothing effects of Syrup of Figs, when in need of a laxative, and if the father or mother be constipated or bilious the most gratifying results follow its use, so that it is the best family remedy known and every family should have a bottle.

THIS IS AN ADVERTISEMENT.
Don't read it unless you want to. It is not a ghost story ending in an alleged blood purifier, composed of mercury, iodine or arsenic, but a new therapeutic agent discovered by the Brazilian Indians—Cactus Blood Cure—the only purely vegetable remedy known for the hitherto incurable blood poisons of scrofula and specific disease endorsed by modern science.

The Intricacies of a Wheelbarrow.
If you have occasion to use a wheelbarrow, leave it, when you are through with it, in front of the house with the handles toward the door. A wheelbarrow is the most complicated thing to fall over on the face of the earth. A man will fall over one when he would never think of falling over anything else. He never knows when he has got through falling over it, either; for it will tangle his legs and his arms, turn over with him and rear up in front of him, and just as he pauses in his profanity to congratulate himself, it takes a new turn and scoops more skin off of him, and he commences to evolve anew and bump himself on fresh places. A man never ceases to fall over a wheelbarrow until it turns completely on its back or brings up against something it cannot upset. It is the most inoffensive looking object there is, but it is more dangerous than a locomotive, and no man is secure with one unless he has a tight hold of its handles and is sitting down on something. A wheelbarrow has its uses, without doubt, but in its leisure moments it is the great blighting curse on true dignity.

CHANGE OF BASE

The livery and undertaking establishment conducted by Evan J. Davis at the corner of Lloyd and Jardin streets, has been removed on account of his increasing business to the large stable formerly occupied by Frank Hess, on Pearl alley, rear of G. W. Beddall & Bro's hardware store. Mr. Davis has built up a large business and by strict attention to the wants of his patrons expects to increase it in his new quarters. Gentle horses and fine buggies and carriages to hire at all times. Special attention given to the ANTIQUITY can be tolerated in almost any thing but hats. If the head is out of date the rest of the body is pretty sure to follow suit. Nobody but a millionaire or a genius can afford to wear ancient headgear, and even they take a good many chances when they do it. It will cost you no more to be up with the times than it will to be half a mile behind them. Everything about our $1.50 hat is handsome but the price, and $1.50 for such a hat scarcely be called anything but a ridiculously low figure. The same can be said of our 25c neckwear. Our line of gents' furnishing goods is the lowest priced in the market.
